Alderman Elliott called the Economic Development Committee Meeting to order.

Elliott stated that first up for approval tonight is an Ordinance disconnecting the territory commonly known as 4498 Vine Avenue from the City of Granite City, Illinois.

MOTION By Elliott, second by Thompson to approve an Ordinance disconnecting the territory commonly known as 4498 Vine Avenue from the City of Granite City, Illinois. ALL VOTED YES. Motion Carried.

Elliott turned over to the Mayor to Discuss the Downtown Walgreens.

Mayor stated that we own the Walgreens building and the land; Walgreens contract will be up in 2020; they have sent us several letters wanting a reduction; I would like permission to negotiate with them starting at $8.50 and go down no less than $7.50 a sq. ft.; we would like them to take over all maintenance.

More discussion by the council about negotiating a price.

MOTION By Elliott, second by Jackstadt to give the Mayor authority to negotiate with Walgreens and go no lower than $6.50. ALL VOTED YES. Motion Carried.

MOTION By Elliott, second by Jackstadt to adjourn the Economic Development Committee Meeting. ALL VOTED YES. Motion Carried.

MEETING ADJOURNED.
